

VICTORIA ROBERTS

Victoria Roberts is a former client of a program established as an alternative to incarceration for women offenders. Victoria became an Administrative Assistant and eventually, the Assistant Office Administrator in the Law Offices of Frederick K. Brewington. In 2001, she received her Paralegal Certification at Nassau Community College, then her Associate's Degree in Legal Office Technology from Briarcliffe College, followed by her Bachelor's degree from SUNY College at Old Westbury and her Master's in Social Work along with her Certified Substance Abuse Counselor Credentials at Adelphi University. Victoria traveled to the University of Stockholm in 2014 to study Sweden's social policy. That same year, she became the Nassau County Re-Entry Task Force Coordinator and received the Citizens Social Action Award from the Citizens Against Recidivism. Victoria currently serves as a board member of the Women's Opportunity Rehabilitation Center and was its immediate past President. WORC is a community correction program that offers an alternative to incarceration and Re-Entry programs for female offenders in and around Nassau County.

P
A
R
A
D
O
X